

Liden & Denz Language Centre St. Petersburg Work Experience Programmes

Internship: Medical

A specialized department for inspection and treatment of children aged between 0 and 14, who are without care of parents, operates at one of the state hospitals. This ward gives children a unique opportunity to pass an all-round medical examination and to receive all necessary treatment.

Assistant to the pediatrician

Medical support staff, handling both administrative and clinical duties and reporting directly to the pediatrician

Main duties:

1. Assists doctor with medical examination (prepares patients for examination, observes and assists, and helps to establish diagnosis)
2. Participates in clinical researches
3. Treats patients under the direct supervision of a pediatrician; everyday nursing
4. Performs injections
5. Explains treatment procedures to patients, instructs patients about medications and special diets
6. Prepares and administers medications as directed by a physician

Requirements
General	Professional or higher medical education (preferably general therapist); working experience is facultative
Russian language/level	A2+
Russian language/ Usage	Good understanding of written and spoken Russian, communication with Russian colleagues and patients
Working hours	Flexible	Hours per week	30	Dress-code	Uniform
Minimum age	21	Possible duration of the internship	From 1 month

In order to apply for this position the participant must provide the following certificates:

- results of venereological and dermatological test
- fluorography (examination for tuberculosis)
- HIV test certificate
- diphtheria and hepatitis certificates

The Hospital reserves the right to do the examination and other tests after the participant's arrival.