Russian Visa vs. Latvian Visa

- Everybody needs one (few exceptions in Latin America and Eastern Europe)
- Tourist visa up to 4 weeks (one entry - no extensions)
- Student visa for Schengen citizens up to 3 months (one or double entry - no extensions)
- Student visa for the rest of the world and up to one year (multiple entry)
- Latvia is a Schengen country: most students will travel visa-free.
- List of nationalities traveling visa-free up to 90 days within half a year, but requiring a residence permit for longer stays: USA, Canada, Australia, Japan, Korea, Brazil, Serbia, Croatia, etc.
- Others (e.g. students from Turkey and even Russians) need a student visa, which can be valid up to 90 days, or a residence permit - for longer stays
